MUSIC IN ST EDMUND'S COLLEGE CHAPEL

The Chapel Choir is non-auditioned and open to all, and generally sings for one Sunday Mass per month. No previous experience is necessary but an ability to read music would be an advantage.

The Chapel Schola is open to students of the University, and sings for the fortnightly Latin Mass (Novus Ordo). A high standard of musicianship is required. Choral Awards are available for St Edmund's students.

For more information on either choir, or if you are interested in organ-playing and/or conducting opportunities, please contact the Director of Chapel Music.

THE VON HÜGEL INSTITUTE

THERE ARE NO VHI EVENTS PLANNED FOR THIS TERM

THE COLLEGE

St Edmund's College is unique among all the colleges of Oxford and Cambridge in having, by Statute, a Catholic Chapel and a Catholic priest as Dean. The College was founded in 1896 as a house of residence, primarily for Catholic priests reading for degrees in the University. It became an Approved Foundation in 1975, changed its name from St Edmund's House to St Edmund's College in 1986, achieved full collegiate status in 1996, and received its Royal Charter in 1998.

THE CHAPEL

The College Chapel is a Grade II listed building, designed by Father Benedict Williamson CSSP. Its foundation stone was laid in 1915 by Cardinal Bourne, the then Archbishop of Westminster, and opened in 1916 by Francis Keating, the then Bishop of Northampton. The bronze sculpture of St Edmund of Abingdon, the College's patron, commemorating the Chapel's centenary, is by Rodney Munday. The Chapel is accessible from within the College at the end of the main corridor in the Norfolk Building at all times. For liturgical events, it can be accessed also through the main door. All members of the College, as well as visitors, are welcome to attend all events taking place in the Chapel.

THE DEAN

Fr Ed Hone, the Dean, is a Catholic priest and Redemptorist (member of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer). Fr Ed has been appointed Dean from the start of Michaelmas term 2020. He is available to all members of the College. Please feel free to call any time at his office, which is on the 2nd floor of the Norfolk building (next to the Chapel) or make contact by e-mail or telephone (see below).

The Dean's Assistant is the Reverend Professor Allen Brent.

CHAPEL COLLECTIONS

Chapel collections contribute to the running costs of the Chapel. The chapel community also supports various charities, the principal ones being The Premananda Orphanage Centre in Ongole, Andhra Pradesh, which provides a home for 60 homeless children

READERS, SERVERS & EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS

If you would like to read or serve at Mass or be instituted as an Extraordinary Minister of the Holy Eucharist, please contact the Dean.
