MUSIC IN ST EDMUND'S COLLEGE CHAPEL

The Chapel Choir The Chapel Choir sing for Sunday Mass generally once a month, and membership is open to anyone. There is no audition process, and members range from experienced singers to those who are just starting out.

The Chapel Schola The Chapel Schola is open to students of St Edmund's and the wider University, and Choral Awards are available for members of the College. The Schola generally sing one- or two-to-a-part, so a high standard of musicianship is required. Entry is by audition. The commitment is roughly eight hours a term, providing an ideal opportunity for experienced singers who for whatever reason are unable to commit to the busier schedule of another Collegiate Choir.

Singing lessons are available free-of-charge to members of both choirs. The Director of Chapel Music (Miss Louisa Denby) welcomes enquiries at any stage of the year; she can be reached via chapel-music@st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk.

THE COLLEGE

St Edmund's College is unique among all the colleges of Oxford and Cambridge in having, by Statute, a Catholic Chapel and a Catholic priest as Dean. The College was founded in 1896 as a house of residence, primarily for Catholic priests reading for degrees in the University. It became an Approved Foundation in 1975, changed its name from St Edmund's House to St Edmund's College in 1986, achieved full collegiate status in 1996 and received its Royal Charter in

THE CHAPEL

The College Chapel is a Grade II listed building, designed by Father Benedict Williamson CSSP. Its foundation stone was laid in 1915 by Cardinal Bourne, the then Archbishop of Westminster, and opened in 1916 by Francis Keating, the then Bishop of Northampton. The bronze sculpture of St Edmund of Abingdon, the College's patron, commemorating the Chapel's centenary, is by Rodney Munday. The Chapel is accessible from within the College at the end of the main corridor in the Norfolk Building at all times. For liturgical events, it can be accessed also through the main door. All members of the College, as well as visitors, are welcome to attend all events taking place in the Chapel.

THE DEAN

Father Ed Hone, the Dean, is a Catholic priest and a member of the Redemptorist Order. He is available to all members of the College, and to the wider Chapel community. Please feel free to make contact by e-mail (eh669@cam.ac.uk & dean@st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk) or phone — 07727 669 669 or (01223 336123). The Dean's Assistant is the Reverend Professor Allen Brent (alb13@cam.ac.uk).

MINISTRIES

After the recent (and ongoing) hiatus caused by the pandemic, we are gradually normalising the operation of Chapel, and will be reintroducing the various ministries that were in place previously. If you would like to read or serve at Mass or be instituted as an Extraordinary Minister of the Holy Eucharist, or minister in another capacity, please contact the Dean.

SUPPORTING CHAPEL

We are blessed to have our Catholic Chapel at the heart of College, accessible to all. We are equally blessed in the students and wider Chapel community who attend our Masses, or who drop in for prayer, reflection and quiet. At Sunday Mass, a collection is taken towards Chapel expenses. We have recently installed a wireless contact terminal in the porch for credit/debit card donations, and there is a QR code displayed giving access to our online donation site, which allows also for standing orders.

Your offerings, and associated Gift Aid donations, are invaluable to Chapel, helping with salaries, heating, lighting, cleaning, church supplies and ongoing repairs. Sincere thanks to all donors and benefactors, all of whom are remembered in our prayers.
