MUSIC IN ST EDMUND’S COLLEGE CHAPEL

The Director of Chapel Music & Organist: Miss Louisa Denby

MA MMus PGDip LRSM CRCO  chapel-music@st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk

The Chapel Choir sings for Mass on Sunday mornings during term time, and occasionally on weekday evenings. Membership is open to all, regardless of experience, and there are no auditions. The Chapel Schola is open to students of St Edmund's and the wider University, and Choral Awards are available for members of the College. The Schola generally sing one- or two-to-a-part, so a high standard of musicianship is required. Entry is by audition. The commitment is roughly eight hours a term, providing an ideal opportunity for experienced singers who for whatever reason are unable to commit to the busier schedule elsewhere. Singing lessons are available free-of-charge to members of both choirs. The Director of Chapel Music (above) welcomes enquiries throughout the year.

THE COLLEGE

St Edmund's College is unique among all the colleges of Oxford and Cambridge in having, by Statute, a Catholic Chapel and a Catholic priest as Dean. The College was founded in 1896 as a house of residence, primarily for Catholic priests reading for degrees in the University. It became an Approved Foundation in 1975, changed its name from St Edmund's House to St Edmund's College in 1986, achieved full collegiate status in 1996 and received its Royal Charter in 1998.

CHAPEL

College Chapel is a Grade II listed building, designed by Father Benedict Williamson CSSP. Its foundation stone was laid in 1915 by Cardinal Bourne, the then Archbishop of Westminster, and opened in 1916 by Francis Keating, the then Bishop of Northampton. The bronze sculpture of St Edmund of Abingdon, the College’s patron, commemorating the Chapel’s centenary, is by Rodney Munday.

Chapel is accessible every day, morning to evening within the College at the end of the main corridor in the Norfolk Building and through the main door. All members of the College, as well as visitors, are welcome to attend all events taking place in the Chapel.

THE DEAN

Father Ed Hone, the Dean, is a Catholic priest and a member of the Redemptorist Order. He is available to all members of the College, and his office is next door to Chapel. Please feel free to make contact by e-mail (eh669@cam.ac.uk & dean@st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk) or phone — +44 7727 669 669 or 01223 336123.

The Dean’s Assistant is the Reverend Professor Allen Brent (alb13@cam.ac.uk).

DONATIONS

A collection is taken at Mass on Sundays towards Chapel expenses; in addition, there is a contactless card terminal in Chapel porch where donations may be made. Gift Aid forms and envelopes are also available. The Chapel community support several charitable organisations. For more information, contact the Dean.
